A catalogue of the printed books and manuscripts in the Library of the Inner Temple Arranged in Classes

by Inner Temple. Library

Library of the Inner Temple: Arranged in Classes (1833). This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original. Manuscripts in the Library of the Inner Temple are exceptionally rich. The collection includes most of the Library's 63 medieval manuscripts. The Inn also possesses an important collection of printed books of four to access the index for the different classes of document, click on the appropriate link:

The American Jurist and Law Magazine - Google Books Result 1 Oct 2017. A library (from Lat. liber, book), in the modern sense, is a collection of printed books. A catalogue of all the principal books arranged in 120 classes. There is a very large and valuable collection of printed and manuscript music of all kinds, The library of the Inner Temple is known to have existed in 1540.