A league to enforce peace

by Robert Goldsmith

The League That Wasn’t - Columbia University 21 Aug 2015. League to Enforce Peace Collected Records (CDGA), Swarthmore College Peace Collection. The Swarthmore College Peace Collection is not the official repository for this collection of records. The League was formed in 1915 at a conference held at Independence Hall in Philadelphia. The League to Enforce Peace Ruhl J. Bartlett University of North LEAGUE TO ENFORCE PEACE IS LAUNCHED: American Branch of Proposed Union of Nations Declares for Force, if Necessary. FEW DISSENTERS HEARD Full text of A League to Enforce Peace - Internet Archive The Proposal for a League to Enforce Peace: International Conciliation, No. 106, September, 1916 [William Howard Taft, William Jennings Bryan] on Amazon.in: Buy A League to Enforce Peace Book Online at Low The League to Enforce Peace (LEP) was an American organization established in 1915 to promote the formation of an international body for world peace. It was formed in Philadelphia by American citizens concerned by the outbreak of World War I in Europe.
